

$1,052 Worth of Dental Treatment for Your Kids

With the Child Dental Benefits Schedule (CDBS), you may be able to claim the cost of dental treatment for your children up to $1,052 covered by Medicare.

Children 17 years and under can receive a range of basic dental services through this scheme that will help keep their teeth strong and gums healthy.

Child Dental Benefits Schedule – it's gap-free and easy!

Find out how to use the scheme!

*Includes teeth cleaning, fillings, fissure sealants, examinations, x-rays, extractions, root canal therapy – excludes orthodontics, treatment under general anaesthetic, cosmetic dental treatment, mouthguards. Eligibility: Medicare card holders with children up to 17 and recipients of certain Centrelink payments. Treatment to the value of $1,052 every consecutive 2 years.

